RICHARD CHAPMAN

Richard Chapman, 59, died unexpectedly at his home February 11, 2013. He married Leanne Woodward on March 26, 1974. His surviving spouse, Leanne Chapman, has been the president of the Jefferson Co. Historical Soc. for the past three years. YESTERYEARS extends condolences to the family.

EDITOR'S COMMENTS

As with most volunteer organizations, it gets harder to find persons willing to step up and become involved. The Historical Soc. has some unfilled leadership openings as well as needing volunteers to help with events and their planning. . The Genealogical Soc. can use some more volunteers to assist visitors using the Society's Research Center. Please let us know if you are willing to help. Talk to any officer of either organization.

If you have any requests, or ideas for YESTERYEARS, let me hear from you.

DEATH RECORDS OF JEFFERSON CO.

These records are contained in nine printed notebooks that appear to be the death records that the “town/township” reporter was to provide information so that death certificates could be produced after 1911. Most of the names are contained in the computerized list of Jefferson Co. Death records compiled by the Jefferson Co. Gen. Soc. However, the following are either not on the list or their burial location is unknown. If you have knowledge about burial locations of any of these persons, please notify the Gen. Soc. so that we can improve our records . If they were not buried in Jefferson Co. they may have been buried in adjacent counties or been transported back to their ancestral “home area”. These records provide some additional information beyond the information given below. It lists: sex, race, age, place cause of death, single/married/widowed, physician, and undertaker.

WEBB - MILLER Marriage, 1885

The Nortonville News, 4 Dec. 1885

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Hiram Webb, three miles south of Nortonville, on Wednesday evening, by Rev. L. D. Price, of Oskaloosa, assisted by Rev. F. Hoyes, Mr. Jacob Miller, of Atchison, and Miss Lydia M. Webb.

The guests consisted of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, and a few of their friends. The hospitable home of the Webb's was thrown open to the company, the beautiful grove profusely lighted with Chinese lanterns — all of these together with the mild weather and starry heavens made the occasion one long to be remembered by all present.

At eight o'clock promptly, as announced, the impressive ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Price, after which rev. Hoyes invoked the blessing of the Almighty upon the life and home of the newly married couple. Congratulations followed as a matter of course.

On repairing to the dining room soon after the ceremony the guests were brought in contact with an elegant supper indeed. The table was beautifully arranged and being loaded with substantial, delicacies and relishes, presented a most elaborate appearance.

The merry guests remained till a late hour, when the bridal party left to catch the night train for Topeka, all uniting in showering good wishes for long life and prosperity upon the departing twain.

“Though fools spurn Hymen's gentle powers,
We, who improve his golden hours,
By sweet experience know
That marriage, rightly understood,
Gives to the tender and the good
A paradise below.” (Cotton.)

O S K A L O O S A CREAMERY BURNS, 1896

The Oskaloosa Times, 2 Oct. 1896

Monday afternoon the creamery building was discovered on fire and although the fire company did noble work, nothing was saved except the separator. The fire caught on the roof — it is thought from a defective smoke stack.

The creamery company was organized in December, 1885, as a co-operative company and began business on the 4th of March 1886, with a capital stock of $7,000, held by 124 share holders. It ran along with varying success until purchased by the Winchester creamery company in September 1894. The new company took possession on the 3rd of September, since which time T. B. Mathews, the resident manager, has not missed a day at the building, and under his management the business has steadily increased. The loss to the company is estimated at about $1,200 — no insurance being carried. A meeting was held here Wednesday, at which the directors made the proposition that if the town would put up a building they would continue to operate a skimming station at this place — a building sufficient can be put up for about $300, which it thought would be easily raised by subscription.

The directors expressed themselves as very thankful for the energetic work done by the citizens here in trying to save the building.

OSKALOOSA BUSINESSES in 1946 -- WASHINGTON STREET, (incl. N. side of Square, W. to E). (Continued from Yesteryears, April 2012, page 30)

Fox Grocery: Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Fox

Mountain's Hardware: Opened in March by Max Mountain at the remodeled location for a generation the stand of his grandfather P. Machiels. By the year end with gradual loosening of merchandise, Max was developing a nice business.

The Leader Store: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gaston of Kansas City purchased this establishment of Goehner & Moore in March; by year's end had built a considerable business in dry goods and furnishings against tremendous buying difficulties. Their grocery department was also a steadily growing feature.

Chevrolet and J. I. Case Agency: Clifford Reusch. Shop and parts departments very active, machine sales slow, auto sales all but stymied by the retarded industrial recovery.

Oskaloosa Truck Line: Ed Jeffery, owner. A major service institution to Oskaloosa and wide territory around.

Shoe Shop: W. A. Vendel

Shoe, Harness and repair shop: F. W. Robertson moved from the Fernstrom building to west room of the Walter Burton block.

Jones Auto Sales: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Jones. This business, formerly operated from residence west of town, re-opened in Burton block in March.

Beer Parlor: Sold by Walter Burton late in the year together with building block, to Everett Marker from Ozawkie.

Standard Oil Bulk station: Andy Kern, dealer.

Blacksmith shop: Opened by Orval Tindell 2nd door east of vacant Meyers Milk depot.

Harry Broyn: Auto repairs. In 2nd block east of the Meyers corner.

LIBERTY STREET (incl. W. side of Square, N. to S.)

Methodist Church: A. L. Hughes, Minister

Lambert Lumber Co.: E. A. St. John, manager. Business sharply curtailed all year by shortages of everything.

L. R. Brown Locker Plant: Mike's expansion in 1946 was purchase of a grocery and installation of a locker plant at McLouth.

Keeling Bros.: Yet handicapped by shortages, this firm managed to effect a considerable number of new installations. They erected a shop 30x60 feet at rear of their building.

Commercial Hotel: On July 1, ownership passed from Fred Dahl to Christena Deppe, from Ozawkie. Redecoration and other changes greatly improved the facilities of the hotel. (FSA Office was moved to second floor of Courthouse.)

Courthouse Annex: Remodeling of this building for county use was virtually complete except for heating-ventilating equipment and plumbing. County engineer Max Engle moved his office from court house to his suite in the Annex. Welfare office is located in north room of this double front building. On second floor are law offices of Jas. F. Swoyer; office of city clerk Elmer Edmonds; law office of James S. Lester who was elected county attorney in November.

Barber Shop: Frank Sharp. Oldest "institution" on the square, except the newspaper and State Bank. Above : Law office of Richard A. Swallow, county attorney; who occupied this new suite in August; shared by Eli Bowen, farm loan association.

Harry Sanford Drugs and Bus Depot

EARLY HISTORY OF WINCHESTER

George J. Remsburg, Potter, Kansas

WINCHESTER STAR, 15 March 1912

Winchester is one of the old towns of Jefferson County. Its history begins with the date of June 19, 1854, when Wm. M. Gardiner staked a claim there. He drove his stake near the site of the old hotel which was torn down about three years ago, and then returned to the East. He also staked a claim on Walnut Creek. In March, 1855, he came back with his family and built a cabin on his claim on Walnut Creek. He fenced a quarter section of land on his prairie claim, about where the Academy addition to the town is, and planted a few acres of corn, from which he received an abundant yield. After the government land survey he sold his claim to Joseph Best, who continued opening up the farm. He soon erected a cabin and not long after another was built and they were joined together and occupied as a hotel. Many travelers on the "old military road" stopped here, and the hotel did a good business.

Though quite a settlement had been formed in this vicinity no attempt was made to lay off a town until 1857. Then there was a question as to where the town site should be located. The place first selected was at the big spring about 1½ miles further west, and it was to be named Savannah. But Alvin Best, who had formerly lived at Winchester, Va., chose the present site, and named it after his old home town. He was the oldest settler, and his wishes were cheerfully acceded to by the others. A town site was at once surveyed, which was the N.E. 1/4 of section 26 T. 8, R. 19 E. Since then several additions have been made to the original town.

As soon as the town was laid out Wm. Reboe located there and opened a store in a small frame building which he had erected for the purpose. In the summer of 1857, he built the "Old Stone Store," as it was afterwards called. About the time the town was surveyed, Mr. Best sold his cabin to Jesse Yoakum, and built a frame house a short distance east of the old Winchester House. In 1857 Joseph Head opened a grocery and saloon. He soon sold to Wm. M. Gardiner, who continued the grocery business until 1859, when he sold to D. H. Wright, who died the following year.

Dr. A. R. Cantwell was the first physician. He located in 1858. On August 14, 1859, a tragedy occurred which caused quite a sensation. Wm. Clark was shot and killed by Wm. Pitcher, his brother in law. Clark was a desperate man and had sworn to kill Pitcher. When they met the former proposed to fight it out, and shot at Pitcher. Pitcher then drew a pistol and shot Clark, wounding him mortally.

Winchester grew slowly until the advent of the Kansas Central Railroad in 1872, after which it made rapid progress.

Among the settlers besides those already mentioned, who came to Jefferson township in 1854 and '55 may be mentioned Alpha Simmons, James Gardiner, Charles Hardt, Simeon and Isaac Hull, B. Brinton, Dick Chandler, Jeff Fortner, J. B. Ross, Chas. Hedrick, Perry Crobarger, Thomas Lamar, Barney Orance, J. C. Manee, Stephen Steirs-Walkup, Wm. Moxley, and others.

Charles Hardt opened a trading ranch at Hickory Point in June 1854. The first post office in the township was established here and Mr. Hardt was appointed postmaster.

Jefferson township was organized as early as April 1856, by the County Court and Henry Marshall was appointed justice of the peace and Robert Grant, constable. In the spring of 1858 the first township election of a full board occurred. J. C. Todd and Richard Hull, justices; and Jesse Ball, constable.

The first birth in the township was that of Ella Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Simmons, on June 19, 1855.

The first minister of the Gospel was Stephen Steirs, who was nicknamed "Walkup," by the Indians. He located in 1855.

The first school district formed in the township and the county was Rothschild District, February 21, 1859. Miss Esther Webb was the first teacher.

In the winter of 1856-'57 religious services were held several times by Rev's. Lovejoy and Taylor, at the Peacock residence on Walnut Creek, south of Winchester.

The first religious organization was at Fairfield, early in 1857, by the M. E. Church under Rev. Chas. Lovejoy.

THOMPSONVILLE MILL HISTORY

The Topeka Journal, 14 Apr. 1928, story by Newman Jeffry (Copied by Donna M. Ward)

The Indian Mills was constructed by the U.S. to grind corn for Delaware Indians. Changed hands at least six times before removal to Lawrence half a century later.

In the early summer of 1834, Michael Rice, an Englishman, and a millwright from Independence, Mo., built on the banks of the Delaware river, in Kansas, a mill for the United States government in order to grind corn for the Delaware Indians. The mill, known as Indian Mills, was the first in the state.

Erected almost a century ago, it was destined to change hands no less than six times before its removal to Lawrence about 1890 [according to the Valley Falls New Era of 27 Apr. 1901, the Thompsonville Mill discontinued operation last week.]; each time it rose to be one of the finest mills in Kansas, only to fall again into a state of desuetude and dilapidation.

Today its massive stone foundations tower above the few hog sheds built in proximity to its protecting walls, grim reminders to the few inhabitants of the hamlet of Thompsonville, two miles northwest of Perry, that theirs might have been a flourishing small city had its several owners realized the great wheat and corn country to be developed at the feet of the surrounding hills.

No longer do the waters of the Delaware pour over its once ten-foot dam. No longer do the great wheels turn with creaks and groans, grinding out whole wheat flour as the swift waters rush thru the sluice. The dam is gone, the mill is gone, the great wheels are gone, the river itself no longer laps the cold native stone foundation, for man has found it to his advantage to turn the channel of the Delaware thru an artificial course – a shorter one.

Almost on the west wall, beneath the spreading branches of a giant cottonwood that has grown up between two roller blocks, stands the smithy of Charles Gieber, one of the early settlers of Thompsonville. Mr. Gieber, as a young man, helped O. L. Thompson, after whom the town was named, build the south half of the present foundation in 1881, the north half being rebuilt by Thompson in 1865 from the old Mormon mill of 1851. The stone was quarried in the nearby hills and placed in position by hand and by derrick. The walls are from one to four feet thick and from six to fifteen feet high. The building itself was three stories high. In 1884 Mr. Thompson installed the roller process and the daily output of the mill was increased to 125 barrels. It became the life and soul of Thompsonville. After Mr. Thompson's death, when the mill was torn down and moved to Lawrence, the little village fell off in population considerable until today the combination smithy–filling station is the only place where anything is sold – or made.

When the Delaware Indians moved further west in the early 1840's, the first mill on the old site was abandoned by the government and a colony of Mormons settled on the banks of the river, at the same time reopening the mill. The Mormons ground flour for the surrounding countryside until about 1851, when due to an epidemic and the death of many of the members, they also moved west, leaving the mill to be rebuilt in 1856, by a half breed Delaware Indian named Everette. He raised the level of the dam and installed a saw mill in connection with the grain mill. It was to this mill that Mr. Thompson built additions in 1865 and 1881. Everette owned and operated the mill for almost ten years, until he was killed while repairing the dam. The property fell into the hands of the Union Pacific railway, which closed the mill and allowed the building to fall into a bad state of repair. After it had changed owners several times, none of whom attempted to reopen the mill, Mr. Thompson purchased the site of sixty acres and the building in 1865, establishing Thompsonville.

[FOLLOWING NOTE added by Donna Ward in 1990– When my parents lived on Slough Creek, they traveled to Topeka regularly via Thompsonville, sometimes by team and wagon, sometimes by vintage automobile. I remember crossing the single land bridge over the Delaware River, and then another bridge across the old steam bed. The stone foundations of the mill were seen from the road. We attended church at Thompsonville, when the community church in our valley was not holding services.

For the newcomers, Thompsonville is the hamlet tucked into the hillside west of outlet for Perry Dam. The construction of the dam and park areas destroyed the old stream beds and the site of the Indian Mills.

Many of the old records reference Indian Mills as an important landmark in the Territory. I have been told that the mill was “floated down the Kaw” to its new site in Lawrence, where it stood and served as a feed mill at the north end of Massachusetts Street, south of the Bowersock Mills. It has been removed and replaced with new construction.

The old Methodist Church building in Thompsonville is in a sad, dilapidated state. The few homes remaining front on a road going west, one of the early roads going towards Topeka.]

MILITARY PENSION

The Meriden Weekly Tribune, 3 July 1890

The new pension law provides for a pension to any soldier or sailor who served ninety days more or less during the last war, and was honorably discharged from service, who is in a disabled condition.

If permanently disabled in such manner as to incapacitate him from performing manual labor, he is to be rated at $12 per month. If he is so disabled as to in any manner prevent him from earning support by manual labor he may obtain a rating between $6 and $12 per month whether his disability was contracted in the army or not.

This pension is granted without reference to when or how the disability was incurred., if it was not the result of his own vicious habits.

It also provides $8 per month pension for the widow of every soldier and sailor who served ninety days, more or less without regard to the time or cause of her husband's death, if she is dependent upon her labor for support. Also $2 additional for each child under 16 years of age; and the child's pension is to continue if it is insane, imbecile, or entirely helpless, although the mother remarries or should die.

It provides, also, that any soldier's parent who is without any other means of support than his or her own manual labor, if the soldier died in the service or from any disease or wounds he received while in the service, may obtain a pension, although a claim has heretofore rejected and dependence did not exist during the lifetime of the soldier.

Applying for or accepting pension under this law does not prevent the claimant from prosecuting a claim under any old laws. Pension under the new law commences from the time application is filed.

An application must be prepared under this law for one who claims under it – claimant selecting any attorney he or she desires without regard to his or her old claim, and if a soldier is now drawing less than $6 a month he can be increased under this law.

The attorney's fee is limited to $10 in each case.

William J. May, 54th Birthday

The Meriden Tribune, 25 May 1894

[EDITOR'S NOTE; It is not common to find the amount of detail given in this birthday celebration report. One can never tell where family information may be hidden.]

Friday morning about sixty friends and neighbors of Mr. Wm. J. May gathered at his pleasant country home to celebrate his fifty-fourth birthday. It was a surprise, although Mr. May tried to make believe that he knew all about it Thursday, the facts of the case are that he did not like to own up that he could be so surprised, (we may get thrashed when he read this, but he knows it's the truth,) but he surrendered peacefully, because we were all there and had possession of everything when he returned from hauling milk to the creamery, and it was useless to resist.

The neighbors brought considerable of "grub" in baskets, also ice and freezers and after all had partaken of the bounteous repast, ice cream was served, which was indeed good. We will not try to mention all of the viands that the table contained, but after all had eaten, there was twelve baskets full left.

The ladies busied themselves in quilting, music, conversation and cooking while the men contented themselves out in the yard by discussing the Coxey and other various movements and telling stories, at which Geo. Richards could excel all the others with the exception of Chris Martin, who came out second best.

Mr. May is an old soldier and came to this country fifty-four years ago. He with his two brothers went to Leavenworth from Valley Falls and enlisted in Co. I, Eleventh Kansas and was in the Price Raid from Lexington to the Arkansas river besides marching across the plains to fight the Indians and other numerous battles.

During his three years in the army he was fortunate enough to not receive even a slight wound while many a brave comrade fell by his side. Those who knew him in army life said he made a brave soldier.

Thirteen years ago, or the time when Mr. May settled there, the farm was raw prairie, and instead of going to Washington to join some army, he rolled up his sleeves and by hard work has made for himself and family a comfortable home and may well be proud of it, just look at his house, barn, cattle, horses, hogs, orchard, his wind-mill a quarter of a mile south which forces water to the barn and house, also a large cistern and other improvements too numerous to mention. This is from being industrious.

Toward evening the guests departed to their homes wishing Mr. May many such occasions. The following are the names of those present as near as we could tell, if anyone is left out it will not be intentionally.

Jos. Rogers, wife & Clarence Bowers	Ben Nunley & family

HOUSE FAMILY BIBLE

(In the possession of the Jefferson Co. Historical Society at Oskaloosa, KS.)

MARRIAGE: This certifies that Ray W. House of Wichita, Kansas, and Jessie E. Williams of Ft. Smith Ark. were united by me in the bonds of holy matrimony at Ft. Smith, Ark., on the 24th day of October in the year of our Lord 1900. (Form not actually signed in the Bible.)

(Wedding clipping pasted in Bible, no date or source of clipping)

Yesterday evening at 8 o'clock Mr. R. W. House and Miss Jessie Williams were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in Barnes and Sweets Addition.

The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives and the most intimate friends being present. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown broadcloth, and carried bride roses. After the marriage ceremony the guests were invited to the dining room, where an elegant supper was served. Miss Williams is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, and by her marriage (in) Fort Smith will lose one of her sweetest and most charming girls. The groom is a business man of Wichita, KS., and most worthy of the lovely girl he has won. The young couple left on the 1 o'clock train for their future home in Wichita, and the best wishes of their many friends go with them.

BIRTH: (clipping pasted in Bible)

Mr. and Mrs. Ray House, 636 North Topeka Avenue, are rejoicing over the arrival of a ten pound boy.

DEATHS: (Clipping pasted in Bible)

IN MEMORIAM:

The little floweret that for two weeks has bloomed in and cheered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. House has been plucked for the crown of Him who said "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." The bright baby boy is no more. But even in his short stay with them he enriched their lives with the love and tenderness they bore for him, and in going thus in his purity to be one of the angel band, unites them closer to the bright shore where he will one day welcome them. Many indeed are the friends who sympathize with father mother and little brother in their sorrow.

IN MEMORIAM:

In the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. House, 636 N., Topeka Ave., grief reigns, where joy has lately been. The beautiful little boy, who came, a passing sunbeam, to shed a ray of brightness of their lives, has gone, leaving no trace but the warmth of love he engendered in their hearts.

Baby House was born the eighth day of April and was taken in his unstained purity, to the home beautiful fifteen days later.

Where hope for his physical and worldly well being have existed, there has come a cherished longing to so live that the little family may be reunited, and the white baby soul of the little one may prove a guiding star for purer, better living.

Many, indeed, are the friends whose hearts go out in sympathy to bereaved parents and little brother, as testified by the numerous and exquisite floral tributes that adorn the little mound beneath which the fragile baby form finds rest.

LIVED BUT FIFTEEN DAYS:

Infant Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray House Dead

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray House died yesterday at the family residence, 636 North Topeka Avenue. The little boy was but fifteen days old.

The funeral services will be held from the residence, 636 North Topeka Avenue, at 10 o'clock this morning.

ANNIVERSARY (This would appear to be the grandparents for Mrs. Jessie Williams House.)

A GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brinley celebrated their golden wedding Saturday, with a banquet to their numerous descendants and friends.

Fifty years ago in Bristol, England, Amelia Gilberson and John B. Brinley were married. A year later they started for America, to make in the new country a home for themselves and little daughter, who is now Mrs. S. W. Bailey of this city, two children were born on American soil, Mr. (believe it should be "Mrs.") J. C. Williams of this city, and G. J. Brinley, of Texas City, Texas.

Mr. Brinley and family lived for some time in Jersey City, but lured by the promises of the great West, went to Indiana, from there to Michigan, and next to Kansas, eventually settling in Fort Smith, here to end their days in peace and plenty. And, as before stated, Saturday celebrated their fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Many handsome presents were received. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames S. W. Bailey, J. C. Williams, P. S. Russell, T. F. Bailey, Robt. Smith, G. W. Smith, E. M. Warren, J. Stough, Walter Barry, Thos. Bailey, G. L. Swope, Mrs. Deiser, Misses Whitworth, Deiser, Nea Deiser, Ella Bailey, Lida Williams, Hetty Barry, Pearl Bailey, Lettie Gatsing, Minnie Warren, Bessie Smith, Margerite Smith, Messrs. Ed Bailey, Earl Bailey, Leon Williams, Ray Williams and Ralph Stough. The out of town guests were Mrs. Susan Russel and Mrs. J. B. Williams and son, of Wichita, Kansas.

THE WILD, WILD WEST IN JEFFERSON COUNTY

The Oskaloosa Independent, 26 Aug. 1865

MURDER: A case of murder occurred on the Kaw bottom last Sunday, under the following circumstances, as near as we could learn them:

Robert Higgins started a report that Theodore Bayne was guilty of improper conduct with a young lady. Bayne retorted that Higgins was only a horse thief, and not worth minding. Higgins heard of the remark and said he would kill Bayne if he did not take back the charge. They were both at church on Sabbath, and on the way home Bayne overtook Higgins in front of the latter's home. Some words passed. Neither would take back what they had said. They drew their revolvers and fired. Bayne was killed. Higgins was not hurt. The friends of the latter say Bayne shot three times, Higgins but once. Higgins ran off, and has not been heard of since. Both parties were young men.

AUTOMOBILE RIDE, 1908

The Meriden Ledger, 7 May 1908

Dr. Marks, with three ladies and a gentleman, rode out over our roads one evening last week just at dark in his big Rambler automobile, it all lighted up to perfection. Telephone messages ran ahead of them announcing their coming and the farmers were out looking at a nice scene. Now if our horses will only behave themselves, let them speed away.

LONE TREE SCHOOL NOTES, 1933

The Oskaloosa Independent, 4 May 1933

Lone Tree school closed April 21, with an enrollment of 18 pupils. First Grade, Lulu Stanley; Second Grade, Delos and Lester Stanley and Betty Wray; Third Grade, Martha Church and Dorothy Norman; Fourth Grade, Lyle Bliss, Jr., and Wayne Church, James Norman, and Dorothy Wray; Fifth Grade, Aaron Bliss and Ernest Cashatt; Sixth Grade, Mabel Stanley; Eighth Grade, Marjorie Cashatt, Edward Church, Ferne Oroke, and Donald Shaw.

There were nine pupils who had perfect attendance and each one received a "certificate of attendance," for one or more years of perfect attendance: Aaron and Lyle Bliss, Edward Church, and James Norman, one year; Junior, Martha and Wayne Church, two years; Ernest Cashatt, four years; Marjorie Cashatt, six years; The four Stanley children were the only ones tardy during the term.

Betty Wray did not miss a word in her final test. The pupils who made a term average of 90 or better were or better were Lyle Bliss 90 1/6; Marjorie Cashatt 97 1/8; James Norman 90 1/6; Ferne Oroke 93 3/4; Betty Wray, 96 1-5; and Dorothy Wray 92 2/3.

Marjorie Cashatt, Edward Church, Ferne Oroke and Donald Shaw took the 8th grade examination at Oskaloosa. They will receive their diploma's about the middle of May. Donald Shaw has gone to school in Kansas only about five weeks. He went to Ebenezer in Missouri before moving to Kansas.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the patrons and board members of Lone Tree School for their kind and loyal support during the past term of school.

A wire fence was put around the tulip bed to keep the rabbits from eating the tulips.

The following program was given the last day of school: Welcome, Dorothy Wray; Recitation, Lulu Stanley; Dialogue, Loquacious Bobby; Recitation, Lester Stanley; Music, Clayton Church, Mr. Norman, and Alice, Recitation, Delos Stanley; Dialogue, "How the Family Helps List the Property;" Recitation, Rosey Wray; Recitation, James Norman; Dialogue, "The Circus Comes to Town;" This dialogue was given in two scenes. Marjorie Cashatt played a piano solo between the scenes. Recitation, Betty Wray; Recitation, Ernest Cashatt; Dialogue, The Last Word.
